DETAILED ACTION

Claims 1-23 are currently presented in the instant application according to the Applicant's filing on 03/15/2004.

Allowable Subject Matter

1. Claims 1-23 are allowed.

Reasons for Allowance

2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

The closest prior art fails to disclose or fairly suggest:

a) A fractional-type phase-locked loop, in which the phase-error compensation means includes a rounding means for receiving an input binary code with a first number of binary digits, indicative of the phase error value, and providing an output binary code with a second number of binary digits lower than the first number of digits, the output binary code defining a rounded phase error value, as called for in claim 1;

b) A circuit for compensating including a truncator operable to receive a first data set having a first length, the first data set corresponding to the phase error, the truncator further operable to modify the first set to produce a second data set, the second set having a second length shorter than the first length, as called for in claim 11;

c) A circuit for compensating including a modifier coupled to a separator, the modifier operable to convert the first portion of the first data set into a second data set having a third length shorter than the second length, as called for in claim 17;

Art Unit: 2816

d) A method of compensating for a phase error including a step of producing a second data set from the first set, the second set having a second length shorter than the first length, as called for in claim 18;

e) A phase-locked loop including a truncator coupled to the circuit, the truncator operable to receive a first data set having a first length, the first data set corresponding to the phase error, the truncator further operable to modify the first set to produce a second data set, the second set having a second length shorter than the first length, as called for in claims 22 and 23.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

Remarks

3. Upon receiving this Notice of Allowability the Applicant must provide the followings:
Certified copies of the priority documents.
